

The Wabash County Farmers Market

Open April-September

The Wabash County Farmers Market is established to provide a community gathering place where local farmers and entrepreneurs can sell handmade, homegrown products directly to the consumer. Our goals are to improve opportunities for all in our community by promoting local economic development as well as social and community building through nutritional education and family-friendly activities.

Web Links

- Wabash County Farmers Market Facebook Page